

PROGRAMS AND SERVICES FOR STUDENTS WHO ARE FULLY ONLINE

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Dean of Students Office

Student Emergencies/Class Absences

Students may occasionally need to miss class due to personal emergencies or accidents. The Dean of Students Office can assist by notifying professors on behalf of students with documented emergencies.

Student Appointments

The Dean of Students Office assists students in making decisions about academic and personal matters. The office can communicate with faculty or academic departments to help resolve questions or concerns and can also connect students with campus and community resources.

Hip Pocket Loan

The Dean of Students Office offers interest-free emergency loans through the Dean Griffin Hip Pocket Fund, which can be used for academic or personal needs.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

Center for Mental Health Care & Resources

Consultation and Referrals

Meet one-on-one with a mental health professional to discuss concerns, clarify needs, and receive guidance on the most appropriate resources. This service helps students navigate available support options, whether on-campus, off-campus, or online.

Uwill

A free, flexible, and confidential teletherapy platform sponsored by the University System of Georgia, allowing Georgia Tech students to connect quickly with licensed mental health professionals via video, phone, chat, or message on their schedule.

Headspace

Georgia Tech students have free access to Headspace, an app offering guided meditations, mindfulness exercises, sleep aids, and focus tools. Designed to support mental well-being, Headspace helps users manage stress, improve sleep, and cultivate better focus and emotional balance.

After-Hours Mental Health Support Line

Georgia Tech students can call and speak with a trained mental health counselor after business hours for immediate crisis support, consultation, or guidance on managing mental health concerns.

Workshops and Presentations

The Center offers a range of workshops and presentations tailored to various topics related to mental health and well-being. These interactive sessions aim to equip students with practical tools and strategies to support them mentally and emotionally.
